Category: Student Services | Version: 1.0 | Effective date: 1 August 2026

IMPORTANT: This is a completely fictional university policy created only for software development, demonstrations, testing, retrieval evaluation, and learning. It is not an official policy of any real institution.

Institution

Northbridge University is a fictional institution used only to provide realistic sample content for the Student Support Copilot project.

Purpose and Scope

This fictional guide describes the student-support services available at Northbridge University, including library, IT, careers, internships, counselling, accessibility, letters, and complaints.

1. Student Support Centre

The Student Support Centre is the first contact point for general non-academic enquiries.

- Opening hours are Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during teaching weeks.
- Students may request guidance on where to take an academic, technical, financial, or wellbeing issue.
- The Centre does not make academic appeal or examination decisions.

2. Library Services

The fictional university library provides print and digital resources, study spaces, and research support.

- Standard loans are issued for 14 days and may be renewed when no reservation exists.
- Students can request an online research consultation with a subject librarian.
- Lost-item charges are reviewed by the Library Services Desk.
- 24-hour study space is available during the main examination period.

3. IT Support

IT Support assists with university accounts, Wi-Fi, learning platforms, student email, and approved software.

- Password resets are available through the self-service identity portal.
- If self-service recovery fails, students should contact the IT Service Desk and verify their identity.
- Critical platform outages are posted on the fictional service-status page.
- The standard response target for normal support requests is 2 working days.

4. Careers and Internship Support

The Careers and Employability Team provides guidance on CVs, interviews, internships, placement preparation, and graduate opportunities.

- Students may book one career-advice appointment per week during teaching periods.
- Internship vacancies advertised by the university are opportunities, not guaranteed placements.
- Students remain responsible for checking visa, insurance, and academic-placement requirements where applicable.
- CV review requests should normally be submitted at least 3 working days before an application deadline.

5. Counselling and Wellbeing

Confidential short-term counselling is available to currently enrolled students.

- Routine appointments can be requested through the wellbeing portal.
- The service is not an emergency medical service.
- Where immediate safety or emergency medical assistance is required, students should contact the appropriate local emergency service rather than relying on the chatbot.

6. Accessibility Support

Students with disabilities or long-term access needs may request reasonable study and assessment adjustments.

- Requests should be supported by appropriate documentation where required.
- Assessment adjustments should normally be requested at least 20 working days before the relevant examination period.
- Approved adjustments are communicated to relevant academic and examination teams on a need-to-know basis.

7. Student Letters and Confirmation Documents

Standard letters can be requested through the fictional student portal.

- Enrollment-confirmation letters are normally generated within 2 working days.
- Custom letters may require up to 5 working days.
- Students should verify the spelling of their name and programme details before submitting a request.

8. Complaints and Service Feedback

Students may submit feedback about university services or raise a formal service complaint.

- Informal concerns should normally be raised with the relevant service first.
- A formal complaint should be submitted within 20 working days of the event unless there is a reasonable explanation for delay.
- Complaints about academic judgement should use the academic appeal process rather than the service complaint process.
